

Scaling up the early childhood workforce to support children birth to age 3: Lessons from Peru and Mozambique

---

Early Childhood Workforce Initiative – Webinars – 14 June, 2017

Jordi Fernández

MNCHN Country Manager, PATH
Mozambique

Jordi Fernández is a health systems strengthening and program management specialist. He is a Biologist with a Master on Community Health by the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona. Jordi has more than 18 years of experience in managing health projects in different countries of Africa, including 12 years of project management experience in Mozambique. Jordi currently provides overall leadership of PATH program intervention in Mozambique and serves as in-country program and team leader. He is fluent on Spanish, Portuguese, English and French.